

How to redeem an Entertainer Food & Drink offer

- Entertainer offers are valid solely for the item listed on the offer and are not valid for special events, theme nights or set price brunches. Breakfast, starters, shared platters, side dishes, desserts and beverages are not considered a main course and are not part of the offer.
- 'Dine In' only is permitted for the following Entertainer merchant categories: Fine Dining, Modern & Contemporary, Family & Casual, Cafes, Nightspots and Upmarket Bars.
- Buffet offers do not include brunches or theme nights unless otherwise stated on the offer.
- Up to a maximum of 4 Informal Dining & Takeaway offers may be used by an individual at one time.
- Only one bill will be presented per table or group.
- The least expensive item, as specified on the offer (main course, set menu, buffet, etc.) will be removed.
- Offers cannot be used in conjunction with any other special promotions, offers, discounts, happy hour, employee reward programs or special menu offerings.
- Should a customer query any of the terms and conditions listed above, please ask them to refer to the Rules of Use in the Account section of the Entertainer App.
- Should a member of staff miss noting the reference number on the receipt, please refer to the members device for recovery. My Profile > SAVINGS BREAKDOWN > REDEMPTIONS.

A screenshot of a receipt from a restaurant. The receipt lists items and their prices in SGD. The items are: Starter (SGD 20), Main (SGD 100), Main (SGD 80), 1 Bottle of Water (SGD 5), 2 Glasses of Wine (SGD 30), Deduct Entertainer Offer (SGD 80), and Total (SGD 155). The 'Deduct Entertainer Offer' line item is circled in red.

PLEASE NOTE: For every transaction that is processed, an automated email will be sent to your finance department or selected email address to ensure the redemption reference numbers correlate.

Should the customer wish to redeem more than one offer during the redemption, you must repeat the process for each offer redeemed and note each redemption number.
